

THE UNSATISFIED

SOUTHERN GOTHIC PUNK ROCK

The Unsatisfied is a punk rock band from Chattanooga, TN, renowned for their energetic live shows, cinematic compositions, and creative branding. Beginning in the southern underground music scene and rapidly rising to regional fame, they quickly ascended to greater acclaim and were embraced by the CBGB's punk scene. Touring the U.S. throughout the Southeast established their notoriety, securing them tours with artists such as The Misfits, Nash Kato, GWAR, and The Impotent Sea Snakes. Through perseverance and sacrifice, their raw talent eventually made them stars of the award-winning documentary Ambition Withdrawal: Redux, which spans their work from inception to infamy. Their heavy sound and Avant-garde style have created a unique, gritty brand of southern punk rock that is charismatic, dangerous, and provocative, cultivating a dedicated following across the US, Australia, and the UK.

Reviews

"While the band may be synonymous with the punk scene, their sound is more complex than that, running the gamut from punk to glam to prog rock to, in their words, "weird." "

Marc Michael - The Pulse

"The Unsatisfied; raw, high energy, rock & roll meets dangerous, punk rock, with precision. The Unsatisfied are a certified genuine American punk act straight from the south. They've played with many legends; their big rock energy & wild spectacle onstage feels like being hit by a rock and roll lighting bolt!"
